HAVE A JOLLY DANCE WITH MEN BARRED

Last "Get Together" Before Vacation Brings Out Big Crowd.

girls there appeared the least bit sorry. H. M. R. A. means "no men need apply," and they didn't, for it was entirely fulls.

B was the last big estertainment and dance given for the girls of the Vacation Savings Fund, which has bendquarters at Me. 36 West Thirtyheadquarters at No. 16 West Thirty-ninth street. They have been getting ready for many months for their in-dividual vacations at the seashore, in the mountains, or on the farm, and last night was just a joily get-to-gether night for the army of girls who earn their own living and are proud to bilong to the Vacation Fund. If there is any one who thinks more man in an absolute necessity at a man is an absolute necessity at a dance he ought to distiluzionize him-self. The Evening World reporter who steed around felt as out of piace as an Orangeman at an A. O. H. plo-nic. None of the sweet young things paid any attention to him.

It was clear those girls were having heaps of fun, though. The Sixty-minth Regiment band was dispensing the intest in dands music and on the hig smooth pier floor the throng of pratty young girls were danding as though their lives depended on it, and getting as unuch fun out of dancing the tange and the one step and the marker and what not with each other as they would have with masonline partners, and more. Between times they growded the benches at the end of the pier and watched the moving pictures, which were remarkably good. And of course there were cooling drinks and sandwiches and sweets. Miss Anne Morgan, who has taken a great interest in these thrifty working girls, and who is treasurer of the Vacation Bavings Fund, was there beaming on her proteges and having just as good a time as any of them. Other members of the executive committee who sided in taking care of the girls were Miss Robinson-Smith, chairman; Miss Maude Wetmore, national chairman of the women's department of the National Civic Federation; Mrs. Reger H. Becon and Miss Careline Shippen.

One of the events of the evening was the presentation of prises for activity during the year. The Missabeth Marbury had given a gold braceing girls, and who is treasurer of the let watch for the local secretary selling the greatest number of tickets for the grand ball held last April. It was won by Miss Minnie Stellar. Prizes had been provided for the two girl members who sold the most tiokets for the same affair by Mrs. E. N. Breitung and the executive committee. A brooch was awarded Miss Ray Sonnenburg and a gold watch to Miss Louise Schwaner. The prizes were presented by Walbridge Taft, son of Henry H. Taft, chairman of the advisory committee. Nineteen thousand girls are depositors in the Vacation Savings Fund and the total deposite in 1914 have been $38,383 and the total withdrawals thus far this year for vacation gurposes, $18,481.
